PUBLIC LIBRARY
KANSAS CITY
1912

The following list of the [illegible] in the United States at the time of the taking of the 1790 Census.

This enumeration covered the states of Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont and Virginia, as then constituted.

The complete set filed in the State Department at Washington was broken when the British burned the Capitol during the war of 1812; Delaware, Georgia, Kentucky, New Jersey, Tennessee and Virginia being lost. Lost of these can be had from these various state records. Virginia had state enumerations in 1782 and 1785, showing only totals of Whites and Blacks for each family: Also in 1784 and 1785 which show only whites. These lists cover only 39 of the 73 counties in Virginia.

The Federal count of 1790 showed a total of 3,921,533 persons in all the states; Heads of families only being named. The average family had six persons, giving about 640,000 families. Of these, about 140,000 are missing.

Some states are listed by Counties and Townships, while others by Counties only; North and South Carolina listed by Counties, Districts or Parishes.

The within lists were compiled from data found in the Public Library of Kansas City, Missouri, by Wm. L. Porter, 700 Gates Building.

In the list of New York for Albany County, Town of Pittstown (now Rensselaer County), John Porter, with a family of 2 - 3 - 8, was the Great-Grandfather of the compiler of this list. His wife was Ruth Merrick, and they were married about 1754, probably in the oblens of Dutchess County. Ruth Merrick was from the Thomas Merrick line of Springfield, Mass, thru Thomas 2nd and Ebenezer 3rd, her father. Felix Porter also listed as family head in Albany County, was their second son, born Apr. 25, 1757, in Dutchess County, and served with Albany Troops in the Revolution. Several D. A. R. refer to him as ancestor - Nos. 75115 - 88655 and 88656.

He died in Northampton, Fulton Co, Oct. 1, 1830. John of Schagticoke was probably a son of John, and brother of Felix.

There were eleven children of whom Elijah, the youngest, was the writers grandfather, born March 4 1778, married Sally Sherwin born Jany. 28 1781, on Feby. 15, 1800, and settled the same year in the town of Mayfield Fulton County. She died Aug. 11, 1850, and he on April 25 1851, both being burried in Gloversville, N. Y.
